WILSON VICTORY CLAIMED

No. 2 Amendment Wins, Is Claim of 'Dry' Leader

REV. GANDIER IS CONFIDENT OF PROHIBITION VICTORY IN CALIFORNIA

2184 Precincts of 5917 Give
No. 1, 'Yes' 139,575;
'No,' 144,298

VOTE ON NO. 2, 'YES'
148,298; 'No' 125,116

Both Sides Stick to Assertions
They Have Won In Los Angeles

Out of 2148 precincts complete out of 5917, the vote on Amendment No. 1 in California stands:
Yes, 139,575; no, 144,298.

On No. 2, the vote in those same precincts is:

Yes, 148,298; no, 125,116.

"California dry wins," declared Dr.
D. M. Gandier, head of the California Dry Federation, to the Register at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

"There is less than 5000 between us," came a report from wet headquarters in Los Angeles.

Rev. Gandier feels confident that No.
2 has carried, and he said that he believes that the other may pull through, though the vote will be close.

"Of the precincts reported upon," said he, "most of the wet territory is included. However, San Francisco is not included, but I am sure that we will go to San Francisco with a vote big enough to carry No. 2 comfortably."

Included in those precincts is most of Fresno, Sacramento, Oakland and San Diego. Alameda county broke about even, which looked mighty good to us.

Long Beach voted 10,022 for No. 1 and 2900 against. Pomona city went about three to one dry. In San Diego 171 precincts out of 220 give No. 1 a vote of 16,156 yes, and 14,111 no, and No 2 was given 16,162 yes, and 15,591 no.

While the D. Y. Federation in Los Angeles is asserting that No. 2 has passed, the wets declare that No. 1 has lost and that it is by no means certain that No. 2 has carried. A wire from San Francisco states that the wet forces there believe that complete returns from all over the state will show the defeat of both dry amendments.

DESK FARMERS BALK AT SUNDAY MILKING

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Nov. 8.— Ever since Monday there has been a terrible row at Minnesota University's agricultural school over milking Prof. T. L. Haackler's ten thoroughbred Jersey cows on Sunday.

Desk farmers returning to the land via the sheepskin, balked on doing it.
One of them said he came to the college to learn to be a better Christian.
But the cows must be milked and the authorities have been asked to decide the wrangle once and for all by making a flat rule covering the point.

town in New Hampshire give Hughes

JOHNSON SAYS HUGHES LEADS IN CALIFORNIA BY 7000

BOSTON, Nov. 8.—Over long distance phone Governor Hiram Johnson of California declared that Hughes was leading in California by 7000.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The New York World, which conceded the election of Charles E. Hughes last night, claimed the re-election of President Wilson today.

PORTLAND, Nov. 8.—Hughes had a 2121 lead over Wilson in Oregon at 1:15 p. m. Returns from twenty-nine out of thirty-four counties are incomplete. The vote is being counted very slowly. Figures at this time show Hughes, 44,840; Wilson 42,683.

MISSOULA, Mont., Nov. 8.—Wilson's plurality in Montana is 74,000, Democrats asserted. A Democratic senator and two congressmen were elected. Mrs. Jeanette Rankin, Republican congressional candidate, was defeated.

WILSON GAINS 11 VOTES IN N. Y. IN 2 HOURS

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—At 10 a. m. returns showed an increase for Wilson of eleven electoral votes since 8 a. m., making him a total of 218. At the same time changes gave Hughes 243, with forty electoral votes doubtful.

The Brooklyn Eagle's election experts early today gave Hughes 254 electoral votes and Wilson 253.

Frank Hitchcock, Hughes' booster, declared early today that the election depended on California and Minnesota for its result.

At 12:45 the Republican National headquarters formally claimed California and Minnesota for Hughes and an impromptu celebration was started.

President Wilson was making a steady gain this afternoon in the two states of Minnesota and California, the carrying of either one of which would make his election certain.

Secretary McAdoo at Democratic headquarters declared this morning that it seemed certain that California would go to Wilson.

If Wilson carries either Minnesota or California he will be elected, was the opinion here this forenoon.

At 1:15 p. m. Chairman McCormick of the National Democratic Committee reiterated his claim that Wilson had been re-elected with an electoral vote of 288.

Regarding California and Minnesota doubtful, with New Hampshire, New Mexico and Oregon, the United Press returns showed that Wilson already had acquired 256 votes in the electoral college and Hughes 238. The President therefore requires only ten votes for re-election.

At Democratic headquarters the president's managers, regarding the election as won, turned their attention to celebrating. A band was hired and Secretary McAdoo distributed brand new dimes as souvenirs in an impromptu parade which passed the Republican headquarters to cheer the opponents. This parade was carried out briefly at 2 p. m.

Senator Hollis of New Hampshire informed McCormick from Burlington that complete returns from that state gave it to Wilson by a 350 majority.

The Republicans are conceding nothing and are sticking fast to their claim that Hughes is elected.

In the meantime President Wilson

The above totals are made up out of unofficial returns from 105 out of lerton No. 5 was not included.

Orange county went strongly into the Republican column yesterday.

It went into the dry column more firmly even than two years ago when Orange county gave the dry amendment a majority of 4081, the county voting at that time 10,446, yes, to 6365, no.

Yesterday, Orange county gave every Republican nominee a splendid vote. Harbison for Congress, who was made the object of an onslaught by followers of J. S. Edwards who had deluded themselves into thinking that Edwards had a chance to be elected, was prevented from having the Republican majority he should have had. However, it was near the highest estimates that had been made for him.

A study of the returns shows that Edwards also took away no small amount of Kettner's vote. At least, Kettner ran far behind Wilson.

Two years ago Edwards got 3497 votes in Orange county. This year he got 2413.

A feature of the returns that is interesting is the fact that Hughes got a heavier vote than did Johnson, yet Johnson's plurality is 700 votes greater than Hughes. Patton, Democratic nominee for United States Senate, ran 1600 votes behind Wilson.

Burke Re-Elected
Assemblyman J. C. Burke, Republican, is re-elected with a majority of over 2500. Many of Burke's friends

Cal. May Decide Election Outcome in United States

At 12 o'clock today, the Register talked over the telephone with Joe Crail, campaign manager in the Republican headquarters in Los Angeles. Crail declared that the count is so close that a difference of 100 votes in Orange county would decide the battle. If my figures hold out Hughes has carried the state.

Crail was elated when he was told that the most recent count showed that Hughes would have Orange county by almost 4150 instead of 4000, as had been given in the estimated plurality.

"We need that extra 150 votes," declared he.

had expected that the result in the essentially fight would be much closer than it turned out to be.

Kettner Is Winner Over Harbison By 5000 For Congress

William Kettner, Democrat, of San Diego, was re-elected congressman of the Eleventh district with a plurality of about 5000. Exact figures have not been obtained. Harbison headquarters in San Bernardino this afternoon stated that R. C. Harbison, Republican nominee for congressman, was defeated by between 2000 and 3000 votes.

Reports received by the Register from San Diego and elsewhere shows that Kettner has a lead of fully 5000.
A San Diego dispatch stated this afternoon that San Diego county would give Kettner a plurality of fully 15,000. In San Diego county 148 precincts out of 219 give Kettner 18,354;
Harbison, 5914; Edwards, 2377.

Harbison was able to go south to San Diego with a plurality of 9000, but that was not enough to overcome the big lead of the San Diegan.

The censor withheld the news, wishing not to sway the American vote.

INTEREST IN SOUTH AMERICA STIMULATED BY U. P. ASSOCIATION

MISSOULA, Mont., Nov. 8.—Increasing interest in South America, brought about partly by the United Press opening regular news channels with the southern republics, resulted here in an unprecedented number of students applying for admission to the Spanish language classes. The enrollment was a record-breaker, and it is steadily growing.

Harbison has a lead of between 2500 and 3000 in San Bernardino, and about 3500 in Riverside county. Orange county gave him a plurality of 2300.

Imperial county has given Kettner a lead of about 200 votes. In Inyo county, Harbison had a small lead.

Evans Elected
S. C. Evans of Riverside, Republican, was elected state senator by a huge majority. No fight was made against him.

about 4,000 to dry amendments.

JOHNSON VICTOR OVER PATTON BY SWEEPING MAJORITY

250,000 Lead Given Governor Over Opponent, Returns at Midnight Show

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—Governor Johnson has been elected to the United States Senate by a majority of 250,000 over George S. Patton, his opponent, at midnight by the Re-publican State Central committee. In San Francisco the governor ran ahead of Patton 3 to 1.

Prohibition has failed again in California, both amendments having been defeated. Hopes of the leaders of the dry campaign were given a severe shock early in the evening by the confident claim of the wet leaders that the southern part of the state had cast a heavy vote against prohibition.

S. F. Swats 'Dry'
San Francisco appears to have defeated both prohibition amendments by a vote of 2 to 1.

ure and its corollary, the highway amendment cat, appeared to have carried.

Incomplete returns indicated that the single tax measure was defeated. The amendment making legislators ineligible to appointive state offices had been apparently carried.

indications were that prohibition in California was defeated by a large majority.

Indicative of the vote of Northern California are partial returns from 300 precincts in San Francisco. The vote on amendment No. 1 follows: For, 1984; against, 4556. Amendment No. 2, for, 1216; against, 3996.

South Goes Wet
From Southern California partial returns show that the prohibition amendments had been defeated by a slight majority.

In the face of partial returns from every section of the state, G. M. Dowell, executive officer of the United California Industries, last night issued the following statement:

"Returns up to 8:30 p. m. show that Northern California has given a large majority against prohibition. Southern California has given a slight majority. We feel justified in claiming a victory for amendments 1 and 2."

In San Francisco returns indicate the ordinance giving jitney buses free use of the streets of the city was defeated by a big margin.

150,000 Vote in S. F.
A record poll of approximately 150,000 votes was cast in San Francisco, according to estimates given out by Registrar of Voters Harry Zemansky following the close of the booths last night.

According to Zemansky the election was exceptionally quiet. The only interesting events of the day were the activity of the grand jurors, who for the first time made personal investigations as to whether or not the law was being carried out at the election booths, and the enthusiasm of the anti-prohibitionists who were out in full force and appealed to all the voters to vote "No" on amendments Nos. 1 and 2.

Civic Bodies Busy
Registrar Zemansky attributed the large vote to the unusual interest in the election to the action of the civic committee in bringing thousands of voters to the booths in automobiles and the exceptionally fine weather.

Of the 73,000 women registered in San Francisco Registrar J. H. Zemansky estimates that nearly 60,000 took advantage of the privilege of the franchise.

The finish was quiet and without incident, after a campaign in which women formed many small cliques, each with a sharply defined issue, all in the final analysis recognizing a demarcation which placed Hughes on one side and Wilson on the other.

Street campaigning ended Monday and yesterday the factions rested on their oars.

There was a deal of hair-splitting. For instance, the workers of the woman's party wanted it understood that while they were unequivocally against Wilson they were not necessarily for Hughes. In the camp of the At-particles league for Woodrow Wilson the women in charge impressed it on their hearers that though they were for Wilson they were not there for his congressmen or senators, and had no interest whatever in the legislative fight. In other words, they wanted it known that their votes to Wilson were a personal compliment, because of the things for which he stands.

OFFICER ASKED START SEARCH FOR WOMAN

Mrs. Bert Myers of Brea and 2-year-old Child Are Reported Missing

This morning Under Sheriff Iman received a call to Brea that he might institute search for Mrs. Bert Myers, who with her 2-year-old child has disappeared.

It is feared that the woman was deranged. She has been living at the home of her brother-in-law, Clarence Myers, from whose place came the call to the under sheriff.

German child labor laws define children as boys and girls less than thirteen years old and those older who still attend school.

REPUBLICANS IN CLEAN SWEEP OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The Republicans made a clean sweep of New York state, with Governor Whitman running ahead of Hughes, and William Calder, United States senatorial candidate, far ahead of his running mates.

From incomplete returns the following pluralities were estimated: Hughes over Wilson, 155,000; Whitman over Seabury, 200,000; Calder over McCombs, 220,000.

The upstate counties rolled up the old-fashioned Republican majorities apparently forgetting 1912 and the rift in the party ranks.

In New York city Wilson fell far behind the expectations of his campaign managers and other Democratic leaders.

Indications from incomplete returns are that he will carry the city by 40,000.

1500 WATCH AS REGISTER GIVES POLL RESULTS

Tribute to the news distributing efficiency of the Register was paid by 1500 persons who last night watched the election returns being flashed on the wall of the post office building, opposite the Register building.

Reports were received by Western Union direct wire running into the Register building. Practically every section of the United States was covered and the reports shown by means of a projecting machine told rapidly the trend of the results in various sections.

Standing room in front of the Register building was at a premium and the crowds ebbed and flowed on to Sycamore street, gathering where the illuminated bulletins could be seen to the best advantage. Scores of automobiles were parked in nearby streets. Many of those who availed themselves of the Register's bulletin service expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the quality of the reports and the rapidity with which they were handled.

U. S. OPERATING 136 MILES OF ALASKA RY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 8.—One hundred thirty-six miles of the new government Alaskan railroad to connect Seward with Fairbanks—a distance of 466 miles—is now in operation with daily trains running. On the 136 miles, 71 comprise the old Alaska-Northern railway line, which has been repaired and again put in operation. Sixty-five miles is entirely new.

The old Alaska-Northern line ran from Seward to Kern Creek, and was built in 1904—falling into practical disuse during 1908. The new section connects the town of Anchorage, on Cook Inlet, with Matanuska Junction, where a branch line 29 miles long has been run to the Matanuska coal fields. Coal is now being daily hauled from these fields.

The next link in the road—which is not expected to be cut clear through until the fall of 1919—will be the connecting section between Kern Creek to Anchorage, which, it is hoped by the government engineers, will be completed next year.

Work is also progressing in the vicinity of Fairbanks where rush work is being done to connect up the town with the adjacent Menana coal fields—Fairbanks now facing a fuel shortage. The estimated cost of the construction of the 466 miles of the main line (including the branch to the Matanuska coal fields) is $25,642,000. Of this sum $11,000,000 will have been expended up to the close of the present fiscal year.

A force of 4000 men is employed on the road, and is considered adequate to complete the line.

Work will progress throughout the winter.

HOLDOVER CONGRESS

The newly-elected Congress, unless called in extra session, does not meet until December, 1917. Almost every one will admit that this arrangement is anomalous, and contrary to all principles of successful business.

In private life, if you employ a new man you want him on the job at once. Holdovers can not be expected to put much energy into their work. If you are taking on a new set of men or new ideas, you want to try them out as soon as possible. If the men and ideas are good, you want the benefit in the least possible time, if they are futile, you want to know it as soon as possible.

The short session of Congress immediately following election traditionally never does much but pass appropriation bills. Even where the same party is retained in power, there are a lot of members who are not to come back. They feel little enthusiasm for work. The session is perfunctory. Yet there is a host of big problems immediately demanding attention. Many meritorious propositions fail because Congress can not get around to them.

The present arrangement does not perhaps incur any great loss. Yet it is one of a number of unbusinesslike ways that tend to make the government less efficient than private business. But you could never make a political issue out of a proposition to have the new Congress meet within a month after it was elected, as it ought to. There are no votes in such a proposal.

It all shows that issues have to appeal to the popular imagination in order to force themselves on the politicians. The latter are looking for a program that will make votes. But there is a growing number of people who appreciate direct business-like methods. The man and the party that can remedy some minor defects like this will make itself popular with a lot of people who appreciate good, systematic work.

TRAINING SALESPeople

The necessity of special education for salespeople was discussed at the recent New York convention of the National Retail Dry Goods Association. One speaker told how she conducts a school for such training. She teaches her girls to think and develop judgment in regard to the merits of goods. "The girls are asked, not 'Do you think this will sell?' but 'Why do you think this will sell?'" They are made able to explain to customers why one article is worth more money than another.

Young people in stores should become able to talk discriminately and intelligently about their goods. The proprietor is always glad to give instruction to a willing clerk. Traveling salespeople will talk to any one in the store who will listen to them. They know a great deal about processes of manufacture and can impart much valuable information.

It seems too bad that so many young people enter business life without more definite purposes. There is a chance to rise in every business. If wages of store clerks are low, it is because so many of them put little brains into their work. Their heart is elsewhere, at the picture show or the dance they expect to attend in the evening.

There is a good opportunity in retail trade for ambitious young people. Merchants will give good pay to clerks who develop into good salespeople. The ambitious salesman can look forward to the day when he can start his own store, and make it a success on the basis of experience gained as an employee. But he will never get anywhere unless he puts his heart and his mind into the work.

SPECULATION IN LAND

There are a great many young men who would like to go into farming on their own account. But they are deterred by the high cost of land. Real estate offered low usually has some defect. Commonly it lacks access by good roads. Or it may need much hard work and expense to prepare the soil.

A recent government report speaks of the large amount of potentially good land lying idle in many states. It says that much of it is being held speculatively for higher values. It is certainly unfortunate that with food scarce and high, would-be land owners can not get well-located farms with good soil at moderate prices.

The old phrase about being "land poor" applies to many people. A persuasive agent induces them to buy at a good price a tract which he promises will advance in value. It is often in some distant city or state which the buyer never visited. He pays taxes year after year, often other charges. A decade later he finds the land is worth no more than he paid for it. He is out his expense and the interest the money would have drawn in a bank. Meanwhile by placing a fancied value on it, he has discouraged people who would have paid a fair price and made it productive as a farm or for dwellings. High prices for land tend to make rentals high, to discourage housebuilding and farm investment.

Conservative business men deplore land speculation. It does enrich a small class of shrewd men who see possibilities early. But others find their money lies idle. Any land owner has a perfect right to hold his property for any figure he may set. But holding it for an abnormal price works against general prosperity. Every time a man sells land for a fair value to some one who will use it for agriculture or for house construction, he helps on the productive forces of the community.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

Some Useless Advice
From a series of "Don'ts" compiled ostensibly to instruct the womankind, but really because the author enjoyed compiling it, the following are taken: Wear your skirt so short that nobody can tell whether you are sixteen or sixty.

Spend money on dress which ought to go for good books.
Wear a silly, narrow skirt, a straw hat in a snowstorm, or a velvet hat in July.

Please understand that each of these admonitions is preceded by a "don't." Understand also that the formulation of them was a waste of time equalled only by that of whistling against the wind.

Create the impression that the woman of sixty would look like sixteen in a short skirt, and that is the garb in which you will find her. As for the good book, it must wait on dress. The narrow skirt will vanish just when style shall decree, no sooner. And a velvet hat in July would not be so absurd as the furs in which fair women sweltered and were happy last summer.

Cured
A man somewhere, annoyed by rheumatism, drenched the aching area with carbolic acid.

It was a long time after that before he could remember that he ever had rheumatism.

Office Secrets

The Providence Journal says that the German submarine U-53 was made in this country.

Probably made in the office of the correspondent who furnishes so much other useful information concerning the war.

Monkeying With Commandments

"Yes," admitted the wild young man, "I have been rather bad, but I won't reform just yet."

"No time like the present," admonished his adviser.

"But you see," rejoined the w. y. m., "when they get through tinkering the decalogue my regular line of conduct may be O. K."

Plagiarism

An injunction has been served on one film-producing company on the ground that the scenario writer plagiarized.

If every offense of this kind in the movie world is to get before the courts the courts are going to be mighty busy.

Almost everybody has written at least one scenario, generally rejected, and later has seen it on the screen. This, however, is not plagiarism, but shrewd adaptation, which is another title for swiping.

The average minor movie picture is a jumble of borrowed ideas, the ideas obscured by the abundance of the jumble.

Earnestly Requested

Reporters might bestow a great favor by cutting out the "cave-man" stuff.

Every time a ruffian takes a few drinks, gives a wild whoop and grabs the woman nearest him he is termed a "cave-man." He is a plain soak, due to have about thirty days in the cooler.

Ungrateful

Banker Morse is being sued for $100,000 by a man who confesses to having helped the financier out of the prison so well adapted to his needs.

While the act in itself hardly deserves such a reward, the nerve of confessing to it ought to be recognized in some way, possibly by letting plaintiff finish out the original term.

Perfection

The father of a prize-winning "perfect" baby has been arrested for failure to provide for the mother of the child.

He wins a prize, too. On the rock pile. Not for perfection, however.

Practicing Medicine

A man recently remarked with some concern that he was losing weight.

Another man advised him that olive oil might prove efficacious, and thereupon was arrested by the first, who was a detective, the charge being that of practicing medicine without a license.

Before telling anybody how to cure a cold in the head find out whether he is a human being or a detective.

Seeing the West

New Yorkers are coming west this year as never before. Several prominent families are registered at the various resorts and are receiving much attention.

It is rumored that Gyp the Blood and Lovely Lulu, with their satellites, also are on the way, and a reception is being prepared for them, too. It will be handled by the police.

Thus is the great metropolis throwing down the bars of its provincialism and giving the country at large the benefit of its culture.

DOG ROUTS BURGLARS FROM MASTER'S HOME

ST. LOUIS.—Burglaries involving the theft of jewels valued at $500 and $265 in cash were reported by John Ashworth, 6108 Elizabeth avenue; Mrs. S. A. Grant, 4154 McPherson avenue; Mrs. Ray Bates, 4235 Laclede avenue; Mrs. Grace Smith, 1902 North Grand avenue; Kenneth M. Funsten, 3941 Cabanne avenue, and John Pajonen, 4111 Bacon street.

Thomas Dunn, 1918 Semple avenue was confronted at his front door by a man with a revolver, who demanded admission. Dunn slammed the door and telephoned the police. The man at the door fired a shot in the air and ran. A watch-dog in the home of A. F. Baker, 938 Catalpa street, attacked two burglars who entered the house in the absence of the family. Neighbors, attracted by the barking of the dog, saw two men jumping out of a side window. Nothing was taken.

WAITING DE LUXE IS NEW TRADE FOR GIRLS

LONDON, Nov. 8.—Waiting de luxe as a new trade for women has been inaugurated in London, with a luxurious training school.

Hidden away in Vincent Square, Westminster, is a miniature Carlton, complete with snow tables, rose-shaded lights, paneled walls—all the appurtenances of a first-class restaurant but the band and the chatter.

Here the girls acquire the "polish" of waiting—learn to fold simple napkins into complicated shapes, and to do those many juggling tricks which alone make a restaurant a wonder place for guests.

The examination paper alone makes the mouth water.

"Name as many wines as you can." "Explain how to mix cocktails." "What is the difference between a Welsh rarebit and buck rabbit?"

These are some of the leading questions that suggest visions to the hungry and thirsty.

ONLY HEARSE IN TOWN IS STOLEN; RAVISHED PEOPLE OFFER REWARD

NEW LONDON, Conn.—Reward is offered for the recovery of a hearse which is mysteriously missing from the town of Waterford, and for the arrest and conviction of the persons connected with its disappearance. The hearse, the only one in the town, was purchased a few years ago for $200, raised by public subscription.

W. S. Munger, who was responsible in part for buying the hearse, went through the burial grounds, and as he passed the carriage shed noticed that the hearse had disappeared.

PRISONER THROWS OFF REALISTIC FIT, BUT $10 FINE REMAINS

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Nathan Anderson, 245 South Fourth street, threw a fit when Judge Stickley fined him $10 in police court.

He dropped to the floor, turned over and over, rolled his eyes and frothed at the mouth. Court Officer Cole and a half-dozen policemen revived him.

Anderson said he had been cut by his wife, and claimed to have suffered from the pain. He exhibited a bandaged hand as proof of this assertion. As he is a well known police character, Judge Stickley ignored the sympathy plea and let the fine stick.

DOUBLE BIRTHDAY

Two Popular Young People Celebrate Anniversary In Company of Friends

Miss Berdella Stark and Lionel Barker, whose birthdays arrive on the same day, planned to celebrate the happy occasion last night with a number of their young friends. The guests were not told of the occasion until their arrival at the home of Mr. Barker on East Chestnut avenue.

A profusion of fluffy yellow chrysanthemums adorned the home and the time was very happily passed with the game of pit, the prizes being awarded to Herbert Batterman and Willard Stark.

Concert singing and music were also enjoyed and the young host and hostess were showered with many wishes for more such happy anniversaries.

Tempting refreshments were served on a long table centered with chrysanthemums, the design also being found on the napkins. The nut baskets also carried out the color motif. One large birthday cake adorned the attractive table.

The following was the guest list: Misses Gilda Launders, Juanita Wright, Louise Plummer, Pearl Powers, Waive Kingrey, Elizabeth Shepherd; Carl Johnson, Carl Sleater, Herbert Batterman, Kenneth Horton, Rex Barker, Willard Stark.

AT SET OF SUN
If we through all the live-long day
Have eased no heart by yea or nay;
If through it all
We've done no thing that we can trace,
That brought the sunshine to a face;
No act most small,
That helped some soul, and nothing cost,
Then count that day as worse than lost.
If we sit down at set of sun,
And count the things that we have done,
And counting find
One self-denying act, one word
That eased the heart of him who heard;
One glance most kind,
That fell like sunshine where it went,
Then we may count that day well spent.

SOCIAL BIBLE CLASS

Congregational Organization Meets At Home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chapman

A very delightful meeting of the Social Bible Class of the First Congregational Church was held last evening at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Chapman on Bush street, the rooms being bright with sprays of holly and asparagus ferns.

The feature of the evening was a very interesting paper on "Is the World Growing Better?" by E. M. Nealley, who gave facts and figures to show that in spots it is better, while in other places it is the opposite. A general discussion followed, there being a great variety of opinions.

Mrs. Kenneth Van Slyck sweetly sang, "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," accompanied by Mrs. W. W. Simon.

Partners for refreshments were chosen by giving the gentlemen names of states and requiring them to find capitals. This caused much amusement and in a number of instances showed a woeful lack of geography.

The committee in charge was Mmes. C. W. Gardner, Sharp, Chapman and Etchison.

She announces that the following will be the topics on the general subject, "Federation Efficiency": (a) State Convention; (b) State Year Book; (c) Financing District Work; (d) Contacting Clubs; (e) The Value of the Biennial Report.

Municipal Government

An interesting and well attended meeting of the Woman's Club was held yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. E. Liebig, 335 East Chestnut street. Mrs. I. D. Annis, the president, presided.

Mrs. Caroline Ey will attend the convention at Redlands, November 14 to 17 as the president's appointee. At the close of the business session, a paper on "Municipal Government, How Administered," prepared by Mrs. Dell Andre, and read by Mrs. Mary Hutchins, was a most interesting feature of the afternoon's program.

Roll call was responded to with "Current Events."

CHILD WELFARE LAWS

Judge W. H. Thomas Tells Spurgeon P. T. A. of Benefits Derived

The Spurgeon Parent-Teacher Association held an enthusiastic meeting yesterday with a large number in attendance. After the routine business had been disposed of Judge W. H. Thomas, in response to an urgent invitation, spoke concerning laws that had been passed through the efforts of the Congress of Mothers concerning child welfare, explaining very clearly the benefits to be derived and giving instances in proof thereof.

Following the much appreciated talk of Judge Thomas, Superintendent J. A. Cranston explained the proposition now under consideration, of the various Parent-Teacher Associations and others interested, owning a moving picture show, which might not only furnish suitable pictures for the pleasure of children and adults, but might perhaps, also be used mornings for illustrating nature study, geography and literature.

He said the plan had already been endorsed by the presidents of the various associations and by the Washington and high school Parent-Teacher associations. A vote was then taken, which resulted in the approval of the association.

The president stated that a sufficient number of parents had been interested in physical education and folk plays to have a class formed with Miss Browning as teacher; also that if the association desired, an invitation could be extended to all of the children in the school, the matter to be taken under consideration until the December meeting.

Light refreshments were served by some of the school girls, who added much to the pleasure of the occasion, by their bright smiles and winning ways.

A sale of cooked food during the day added a considerable sum to the treasury.

HOUSEWIVES' HINTS

Thrifty Women Can Save Much By Being Careful Of Little Things

It is a well known fact among housekeepers that one woman can live on what a shiftless housekeeper neglects. In other words, the loss from carelessness in one home would stock a careful housekeeper's kitchen. Everything worth having at all deserves to be cared for, and good kitchen utensils are no exception. What is the use of buying a lovely granite or porcelain kettle, only to let it fall on the floor and get chipped? True it may not thus have a hole put in it, but what about the unsightly chipped spot? Why should the snowy surface of the enameled ware be scraped when soaking will easily dissolve the burned or sticky substance? Why waste energy and the good of the saucepan?

Why allow the inside of the enameled tea kettle to become caked with alkali when a lemon cut up and boiled therein will rid it of the barnacles? Why not keep the little scrapers, apple corers, sieves, can openers and the like bright by properly drying them after they are used? Why not keep the steel knives polished? Why not care for the kitchen utensils the same as you would your parlor vases, or your cut glass? Why let the tea kettle boil dry? If it were silver, you would not and yet it is doing the service and is worthy of your care. Why not wash the outside of your milk and cream bottles and polish them before opening? They may have traveled through all kinds of dust before reaching your kitchen.

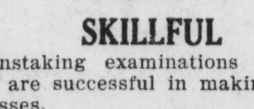

Why roughly wash your common dishes and allow them to become checked and cracked? It is just as easy to have a care, and do them as ceremoniously as you would your better china. A checked or cracked dish carries a reproach to the good housekeeper.

Do not find fault with the other woman's home or her management of it, if you, yourself, are not respectful of your own kitchen ware.

KEYS FOR EVERY DOOR MAY BELONG BURGLAR

W. J. Wells, real estate man, believes that if he could find the owner of a bunch of keys which he found in the front door of a cottage he owns at 1114 West Third he would find a man who had access to practically every home in this city and a man who might be gaining a livelihood by other than honest methods.

All kinds of keys are on the key ring which Wells found sticking in the door when he went to his property a few days ago. The house is empty.

Manager Schlosinger says:

"Pauline Frederick in 'Ashes of Embers,' which is being shown tonight for the last time at the West End Theater, is a splendid production.

"It would be hard to find a more perfect photoplay and one that will hold the entire attention of an audience so thoroughly. 'Ashes of Embers' is a masterpiece of the finest kind and Miss Frederick does the greatest work ever accomplished by any living actress.

"Another feature on the bill tonight is the Burton Holmes travels, on the Isle of Capri—a visit to the gorgeous Blue Grotto and the marvelous sight showing Mt. Vesuvius in eruption. Nearly 1000 people attended the show last night—many were turned away."

For Croup -- Mothers-- Always Keep this Handy

The day of the Croup scare is over for those parents who wisely keep Foley's Honey and Tar Compound in the home ready for instant use.

W. C. Allen, Roseley, Mo., writes: "I have raised a family of four children, and have used Foley's Honey and Tar Compound with all of them. I find it the best croup and cough medicine I have ever used, and I have used it for eight or ten years, and can recommend it for croup."

If you are awakened by the little ones grow hoarse or croupy, if their breathing becomes wheezy and stuffy, give them Foley's Honey and Tar Compound promptly and it will ward off an attack of croup.

If you are awakened by the hoarse brassy cough that means croup, give Foley's Honey and Tar Compound at once. It will ease the little sufferers quickly, cut the little choking phlegm, and soon they will have easy breathing and peaceful quiet sleep.

KILL'S PAIN

It Brings Relief to Boy Standing His Watch Deep in Mud

—Once upon a time, only a few months after this terrible world war had begun, Private Bailey, a soldier in the ranks had stood for days in the trenches "somewhere in France." The cold rains soaked him to the skin; the mud was deep. He had no rest. Weary and aching with rheumatic pains, he recalled the faith his mother had in Sloan's Liniment. He asked for it in his next letter home. A large bottle was immediately sent him and a few applications killed the pain, and soon more he was able to stand the severe exposure. He shared this wonderful muscle-soother with his comrades, and they all agreed it was the greatest "reinforcement" that had ever come to their rescue. At your druggist, 25c, 50c and $1.00 a bottle.

BRINGS DOWN FIVE
'SAUSAGE' BALLOONS

PARIS, Nov. 8.—Sergeant-Major Bloch has just been mentioned in dispatches as having brought down his fifth "sausage" balloon. He specialized in "drachen" hunting, which is no easy sport, as every sausage is formidably defended with artillery on board and anti-aircraft guns below. Decoy sham sausages are also used by the Germans, and one French aviator, Sergeant-Major Guignot, once fell into the trap and was suddenly attacked and severely wounded, but, in spite of his injuries, kept up, returned to the attack, and brought down his opponent.

Bloch destroyed his first sausage on June 26. In July he brought down his third, and was severely wounded. He was set up with orders to set on fire a "drachen" at a height of 5500 feet, and reached it just as the enemy, having got alarmed, was bringing it down. He followed down to some 1500 feet, when he attacked it. He was fired at on all sides and was wounded. He came down still lower, actually to within about 400 feet of the ground, in spite of a bullet through the leg which broke the bone, he went on dropping his bombs, and at last set fire to the balloon, which burst into flames.

He flew back to camp, and just had strength to say, "I have done it; I saw the thing blow up," when he fainted away.

INSANITY IN IRELAND
SHOWS BIG DECREASE

DUBLIN, Ireland, Nov. 8.—Insanity in Ireland has lately shown a decrease, chiefly among women. This is something new, as Ireland's statistics for insanity have always been unusually high. The superintendent of the asylum at Belfast declares the reason for the decrease is due entirely to the improved standard of living and to the restrictions on the liquor traffic. Many people who lived in poverty are now in comparative luxury.

There are, he declares, solid grounds for the hope that, especially among women, Ireland will witness a great diminution of neurotic disorders.

At Corona yesterday, Pierre Van Damme was given his freedom. He was up for preliminary examination upon a charge of murdering Karl Knauss, son-in-law of A. Hacklander of Santa Ana. That he killed in self-defense was shown to the satisfaction of the justice.

Van Damme, a Belgian, who lost his parents in his native land during the invasion, and Knauss, a German, quarreled.

Van Damme shot and killed the German October 22. The Belgian colonies were aroused into action to such an extent that the Belgian Consul in San Francisco and the vice consul in Los Angeles took the matter up, and employed Attorney Roger Marchetti of Los Angeles to defend the man.

But when Marchetti went to see his client yesterday he had already been freed from the murder charge at a preliminary hearing before Judge Clayton at Corona, and instead of being of service to his client, he turned Good Samaritan and gave the widow of the dead man a job.

He discovered her predicament while seeking the family of Van Damme. With her 5-year-old daughter, Mabel, Mrs. Knauss was the picture of despair, as she busied herself in her lonely cottage, packing her few belongings in readiness to move—where, she did not know.

By a strange coincidence of fate, it was mainly through her evidence that the Belgian was freed. She was the only eyewitness to the tragedy.

But she did not testify that the trouble was over the war. At the time of the killing, neighbors said that for a long time, hard feeling had existed between the Belgian and the German because of the alleged abuse of Van Damme by Knauss.

Friends of Van Damme said the Belgian had brooded over the loss of his parents, through Germany's invasion of Belgium, until he was beside himself and killed in self-defense.

From evidence introduced at the hearing, Knauss was quarrelsome and hard to get along with. Neighbors all testified that Van Damme was a law-abiding citizen and had never had any other trouble.

The ill feeling reached a climax when Van Damme went across the street to his neighbor's after a farming implement he had loaned Knauss. He had a small pistol in his pocket, with which he had been shooting squirrels, and it was with this pistol that Knauss was killed after he had struck Van Damme down with a huge pitchfork and then beat him severely.

After the tragedy Mrs. Knauss was left in desperate straits. With $1000 she had saved before her marriage, she and her husband had bought a 33-acre farm from Mrs. J. S. Pratt of Riverside, giving a mortgage for $3000. Realizing how impossible it would be for the widow to remain on the place and finish the payments, Mrs. Pratt came to her rescue and has promised to give her back the $1000.

OFFICER USES MATCH
INSTEAD OF GUN TO TAKE HIS PRISONER

MEMPHIS, Nov. 8.—"Got a match?" asked City Detective Pat Horan, as he walked up to a man at Main street and Winchester avenue, with an unlighted cigar in his hand.

"I think so," answered the stranger, as he reached with both hands and commenced to rummage in his coat pockets. Instantly the detective threw both arms around him and extricated an automatic pistol from a pocket in his trousers. An extra clip of cartridges was found in his waist pocket.

"You'd better come along with me," said Detective Horan, as he exhibited his badge. "We got a telegram this morning that you are wanted in Chicago."

Before They Succeed In Carrying Out Raid

The Tustin Mercantile Company's store, the post office and the Tustin drug store were visited by housebreakers Monday night. They left plain evidences of their visits but nothing of value was missed, and the supposition is that they were frightened away before getting away with anything. Finger-prints were left and an effort is being made to trace the guilty parties.

Ladies' Aid Meets
The members of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Tustin Presbyterian church held a business and social meeting last Friday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. W. L. Leiby.

The special business for this meeting was planning for the annual bazaar and supper to be held some time about the first of December.

Each one of the ladies present was busy working on articles to be for sale at the bazaar.

The annual supper given by the Ladies' Aid Society is usually looked forward to by everybody in town and it is always well patronized.

Luncheon Served
At the close of the business part of the meeting the ladies invited their guests to the dining room for a luncheon of hot biscuits, maple syrup, cake and coffee and a delightful social time was enjoyed.

Those present were Mrs. Byron Johnson, Mrs. W. S. McDougall, Mrs. E. E. Smith, Mrs. C. P. Marshall, Mrs. S. E. Tingley, Mrs. Charles Lambert, Mrs. Sarah E. Moores, Mrs. J. W. Dryer, Mrs. P. H. Ebell, Mrs. Ruby Belcher of Los Angeles was a guest.

Putting in Sidewalk
The owners of the Arrow Garage are improving the front of their property by putting in a new concrete sidewalk from the curb to the building the width of the front on D street. They have also graded, graveled and oiled the street from the curb to the highway, making it an easy matter for automobiles to drive into the garage for repairs.

Tustin Personals
Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Smith and Miss Blanche Smith returned Monday from a several days' visit to San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cooley and Mrs. Cooley's sister, Miss M. O. Chelson, will make their permanent home in Tustin, occupying the bungalow on First and B streets. Mr. Cooley is one of the new firm of E. A. Ward & Company, recently purchasing the store of H. Romer & Company.

Miss Minnie C. Childs left Tuesday morning for her former home in Chicago to spend the winter.

Mrs. J. O. Preble, who went east in May for a year's stay at her old home in Haverhill, Mass., writes that she will return before Christmas.

GIRLS! DRAW A MOIST CLOTH THROUGH HAIR.
DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

Try This! Hair Gets Thick, Glossy, Wavy and Beautiful At Once

Immediate?—Yes! Certain?—that's the joy of it. Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and appears as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a Danderine hair cleanse. Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt or excessive oil, and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair. A delightful surprise awaits those whose hair has been neglected or is scraggy, faded, dry, brittle or thin. Besides beautifying the hair, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes but really new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair, and lots of it surely get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter and just try it. —Advertisement.

RUB YOUR EYES

and get a clear vision of the possibilities of Fruit and Nut growing without irrigation in the Templeton-Paso Robles district—a swell place for a home—money making opportunities undreamed of a few years back, a combination of desirable conditions possessed by no other locality in the state, these are reasons why so many men from Orange county and other Southern California points are investing there.

10 acre lots, best orchard zone, near town, fine soil for almonds, walnuts, pears or prunes—all money makers—$90.00 to $175.00 per acre.

10 acre lots, young orchards just coming into bearing, $300.00 to $400.00 per acre.

Here are two good ones, combinations suitable for dairying, hog raising and fruit growing, 1/4 mile from high school.

30 acres, 1/2 in alfalfa, 1/2 in fine pear, prune or walnut land, $200.00 per acre.

43 acres adjoining and in the same combination and price, the alfalfa land owns electric pumping plant and modern cement pipe line system.

THE ONLY
STEAM-COOKED
OATMEAL

H-O

A pleasant taste is a great aid to the digestion of any food. "H.O." Oatmeal has a full delicious flavor that is lacking entirely in ordinary oatmeal or rolled oats, due to the exclusive steam cooking process by which "H.O." is prepared, and which causes all the delicate flavor of the oatmeal to be retained. That is why the children prefer "H.O." and thrive upon it. Besides being palatable and digestible, it can be cooked in only 20 minutes. At all grocers.

CREDIT SYSTEM IS THE BEST SAYS NEW COMER

H. Leipsic Brings up Live Subject at Luncheon of Merchants at James' Today

"The credit system is the best; when you get a man on your books you've got him."

This was the statement at the Merchants' luncheon at James' at noon today of H. Leipsic, who has recently come here from San Luis Obispo to open a store in the room formerly occupied by the Crookshank-Beatty Company.

The new arrival was introduced to the business men at the luncheon by

R. L. Bisby. In expressing his appreciation of the cordial reception tendered him and reciting experiences he had in his former town, he opened a subject which resulted in discussions that made the meeting one of the liveliest and most interesting held since the idea of the noon luncheon was first introduced last year.

The speaker told of the operation of a credit department in the association at San Luis Obispo and of the splendid success it had achieved. He said that he had done a considerable credit business in that city and that when he cleaned up preparatory to moving here he left about $150 in bad debts. The system there is to employ a secretary who gives his entire time to the M. and M. business, and that only accounts sixty days overdue were turned into the secretary. The accounts were placed under different designation, such as "Good but Slow," "No Good," etc. Under this system the merchants were kept informed as to the standing of those who asked credit. It is a preventative rather than a collection department.

The credit feature of business was discussed from several angles by those present, all agreeing that Leipsic had given the members a splendid suggestion.

Attorney H. J. Forgy made a clever address on "Sociability," dwelling on its features as a harmonizer and adding to the pleasure of the individual. "You are getting money for your social pleasures, the latter being absolutely necessary to your happiness," said the attorney.

IMPLANTING NERVES ADVOCATED AS CURE FOR BABY PARALYSIS

PHILADELPHIA, Pa.—A remarkable demonstration in nerve implantation which surgeons say may result in restoring to usefulness paralyzed limbs of thousands of infantile paralysis victims, was given here by Dr. A. B. Gill at the University of Pennsylvania Medical School at the clinical congress of surgeons.

Dr. Gill used as his subjects dogs, rabbits and guinea pigs suffering from paralysis of the legs. He implanted hundreds of new nerves into the paralyzed muscles. These nerves he said would soon take root in the muscle tissues and connect with the general nervous system, restoring feeling and animation to the paralyzed parts.

He exhibited several animals upon which nerve implantation tests were performed some time ago. In all cases feeling and animation had been restored.

After the wreck the funeral of one of the victims was being held. As was customary all present were asked to speak. There was a long silence. Finally an eager little man came forward and said:

"If no one else has anything to say, I would like to speak a few words for Southern California."
Oh, they are boosters, those fellows are!

MANY OVERCOME BY BLAZE IN N. Y. SUBWAY

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Fire was discovered last night in the subway near One Hundred and Third street. Scores of passengers were carried out unconscious. They were overcome by the dense smoke pouring through the tunnel. Four alarms of fire were turned in to bring the firemen to the aid of passengers unable to get to the street. The first two alarms were turned in just before 11 o'clock. Within a few minutes smoke and some flames were pouring from the tunnel gratings as far north as One Hundred and Sixteenth street.

As far as could be ascertained there were two trains between Ninety-sixth street and One Hundred and Tenth street. One was a six-car local and the other a ten-car express. The smoke was so dense an hour after the fire started that firemen could not explore the tunnel to locate the flames.

According to several of the passengers taken from the tunnel, both trains caught in the fire zone were jammed with election crowds. Twelve engine companies sent crowds of men into the smoke filled street emergency exit, because of the dense clouds of smoke and the fumes accompanying it.

The firemen said at midnight they did not believe any lives had been lost, and that all had been rescued.
